

Episode 234: Government Efforts To Stop Foreign Internet Adversaries, and Supreme Court Musings

Date : October 3, 2018

In this week's podcast Eric and Jonathan look at cyber security and interference in elections. They talk about nation state threats and whether governments should go on the offensive to protect themselves. Jonathan also talks about the first stop processing notice issued under GDPR and they touch briefly on surveillance and whether bad behaviour is more likely to be recorded now than it was twenty years ago.

TechLaw10 is a 10-minute audio podcast update from U.S. lawyer Eric Sinrod (Duane Morris) and UK lawyer Jonathan Armstrong \(Cordery\) where they share insights on developments where technology intersects with the law in the EU and the U.S. These well-known commentators are sought out in the media for their opinions on breaking news and developing trends. Whether you are in North America or Europe, now you can hear directly from them regarding the latest technology issues at home and across the pond.
