

Everything Compliance - Episode 10 - The first 100 days of the Trump administration - Part 1

Date : May 15, 2017

Jonathan Armstrong joins Tom Fox in the latest episode of Everything Compliance. The panel also includes Jay Rosen, Matt Kelly and Mike Volkov.

This episode is the first of a two-part series of podcasts dedicated to the first 100 days of the Trump administration as it related to compliance. Jonathan leads a discussion of the Trump administration's effect on Privacy Shield and what the debate means for US companies doing business in the UK and EU. He also discusses the key differences in the DOJ's Evaluation of Corporate Compliance Programs in a FCPA context when set against the UK approach under the Bribery Act 2010. There's a brief discussion of conflict minerals and then some thoughts on what Brexit means for compliance
