In this edition of Cordery Head to Head @ Home Cordery's Jonathan Armstrong talks to Lisa Fine. Lisa is currently Director, Compliance, Americas at Pearson. She was formerly the Director of Global Compliance at Gate Group. Lisa is also the Co-Host of the Great Women in Compliance podcast.

Lisa joins us from her home in Washington DC.

They talk about how Lisa became involved in compliance issues after moving from a big law firm in Washington DC. They talk about whistleblowing and some of the cultural challenges in dealing with this in a multinational company. They talk about the need for compliance professionals to sometimes fill a vacuum left by government. They also talk about the future of compliance and whether that is intertwined with the need for organisations to behave ethically.
