

Episode 134 : An unprecedented year in technology law

Date : January 6, 2015

This week's podcast is a review of the most significant technology law developments in 2014. It includes a quick review of topics like the right to be forgotten, changes to data protection laws, the increased importance of cyber security, the legal issues of drones, the after effects of Snowden and the issues of technology and work/life balance.

TechLaw10 is a 10-minute audio podcast update from U.S. lawyer Eric Sinrod (Duane Morris) and UK lawyer Jonathan Armstrong \(Cordery\) where they share insights on developments where technology intersects with the law in the EU and the U.S. These well-known commentators are sought out in the media for their opinions on breaking news and developing trends. Whether you are in North America or Europe, now you can hear directly from them regarding the latest technology issues at home and across the pond.
