

Life with GDPR - Boris Johnson Announces Resignation

Date : July 13, 2022

In this episode, Jonathan Armstrong and Ton Fox discuss Prime Minister Boris Johnson's recent announcement that he will be resigning as British PM when his successor is announced. There's a focus on what this might mean for the worlds of compliance and the law. Some of the highlights include:

1. The reasons for the resignation.
2. How some of the candidates might change the compliance landscape for example with an acceleration of laws on modern slavery, supply chain compliance and forced labour issues relating to China.
3. Lessons learned from the Pincher Affair for compliance – how whistleblowers and allegations of sexual misconduct should be handled.
