

Life with GDPR – Episode 54 - Data Protection After Brexit

Date : March 4, 2021

https://youtu.be/HT5rpXj_TQI

In this episode Jonathan Armstrong and Tom Fox are back to discuss issues relating to data privacy, data protection and GDPR.

Today, they begin a 3-part series on issues relating to GDPR after Brexit: data protection, data transfer and issues related to trade sanctions, AML and export control.

In this episode they look at data protection and answer the following questions:

- Does GDPR still exist in the UK?
- Does pre-Brexit case law still matter in the UK?
- What is the temporary data protection deal between the EU & UK all about?
- How will extra-territorial reach work for the EU & the UK?
- Will I need a Data Protection Representative?
- Will I need a new Data Protection Officer?
