

Life with GDPR - Episode 19 - Class Actions around Data Privacy

Date : November 29, 2018

<https://youtu.be/H5mXHL3viUA>

In this episode Jonathan Armstrong and Tom Fox visit the topic of class action lawsuits involving data privacy and GDPR.

Some of the highlights are:

- Key differences in UK/EU and US class actions.
- We take a deep dive into the Morrisons data breach.
- Why Data Privacy Impact Assessments are critical for companies and their vendors.
- How risks can change and be modified during the term of an employee's work life.
- What is the state of class action litigation in the EU?
- What does all of this mean for US companies trying to get data out of the UK and EU?
