

Supply Chain/ESG Due Diligence Update: The Nordic/Baltic Region

Date : August 17, 2021

What's this all about?

Supply chain/ESG due diligence continues to be a hot topic in Europe. Germany is the latest of a number of European countries to adopt legislation in this area and there are developments going on elsewhere.

Check out our joint article (<https://www.magnussonlaw.com/news/the-increasing-regulatory-requirement-of-supply-chain-due-diligence-compliance-the-next-really-big-thing-in-compliance/>) with international business law firm Magnusson (<https://www.magnussonlaw.com/>) to get a snapshot of what's going on in a number of countries, including the following Nordic/Baltic region countries:

- Denmark;
- Estonia;
- Finland;
- Lithuania; and,

Why is this important?

Supply chain/ESG due diligence is rapidly becoming one of the biggest compliance topics. You should therefore consider following progress at the European country and EU levels in order to better manage third-party risk in this area.
